Lehr Memorial.

ABOUT the time that Mark Twain (Samuel L. Clemens) laid the foundations of his fame in "Innocence Abroad" and Wm. Dean Howells of Ohio was appealing to the emotional and imaginative through poetic strains, a young man of eagle eye, unclouded vision, and towering scholarly ambitions and attainments entered a little different but equally useful realm, that of an educator, in what was then Johnstown, now Ada, Hardin County, Ohio. This spare but all the more active young man was Henry Solomon Lehr, founder and President Emeritus of what is now the Ohio Northern University at Ada. It does not require much of a draught upon your imagination to see this sunny far seeing pedagogue standing near the old depot, like the prophet of Horeb lifting up his eyes and looking Eastward and Westward, saw no school of great learning on this newly established trunk line between Chicago and Alliance. Looking Northward and Southward he could discover on a bee line but one college or University between the capitals of the Wolverine and Buckeye states. Said he to his friends, geographically, this is a strategic point for an Institution of Learning. He further saw that although the country was flat and adjoined the marsh lands, the head waters of two noble rivers, the altitude was necessarily high, the water pure and through future drainage, this would become a rich agricultural district. Argument number two for a College location.

The almost phenomenal results have justified the wisdom of one of our country's great and good men. For more than a third of a century, like a perennial spring, his tact, talent and fatherly diligence, titanic ideals, unselfish Christian manhood, flowed into the lives of more than 32,000 struggling young men and women who had both cisatlantic and transatlantic homes. As graduates and ex-students, they now constitute a very vital part of the enduring fiber of our varied civilization. It was only natural that some tangible response to Dr. Lehr's great love for his "boys and girls" should be suggested by them. Fortunate was it that Dr. A. E. Smith's unselfish devotion and far seeing insight, began the crystallization of these nebulous yet precious ideals, into a Lehr Memorial Building, 180x160, three stories high, to be built of buff brick trimmed with stone and used for college purposes. The services of Rev. A. A. Thomas, a graduate of the Institution, was secured to gather funds, and the progress has been so commendable that more than one third of the approximate cost, $100,000.00, has been secured. The subscriptions are born of an unquenchable love and loyalty to certain fundamental elements of the old regime together with the abundance and assurance of continued and increased prosperity under the present administration.

THE SCHOOL THAT MADE GOVERNOR WILLIS

EACH YEAR MANY FRESHMEN COME INTO ONU TO START THEIR COLLEGE CAREERS. OFTEN WITHIN THE FOUR YEARS MANY BECOME COUPLES AND GO ON TO MARRY AND HAVE CHILDREN. NONE OF THEIR LOVE IS AS SPECIAL AS THE FIRST COUPLE THAT KISSES NEXT TO THE CHAPEL THEIR FRESHMAN YEAR. LEGEND HAS IT THAT THE FIRST FRESHMAN COUPLE THAT KISSES NEXT TO THE CHAPEL EACH YEAR WILL GRADUATE, GET MARRIED TO EACH OTHER, HAVE CHILDREN, AND LIVE HAPPILY EVER AFTER.

THE LEGEND STARTS HERE

THERE COMES A TIME WHEN EVERY PARENT MUST LET GO AND ALLOW THEIR CHILD A CHANCE TO GROW AND HAVE THEIR OWN IDENTITY. AS EACH PARENT ACCOMPANIES THEIR TIMID FRESHMAN TO THE CAMPUS THE PARENT MUST REALIZE THAT THEIR CHILD WILL NEVER BE THE SAME. OHIO NORTHERN GIVES THEIR CHILD A CHANCE TO GROW AND BECOME A COMPLETE INDIVIDUAL READY TO MAKE LIFETIME CHOICES AND LEAD A PRODUCTIVE LIFE. ADA BECOMES THE MATURING INDIVIDUAL'S HOME FOR A FEW YEARS AND THE SIGNS OF THE TOWN BECOME FRIENDLY GHOSTS THAT GUIDE THEM SAFELY TO THEIR DESTINATION EACH TIME THEY LEAVE AND RETURN.

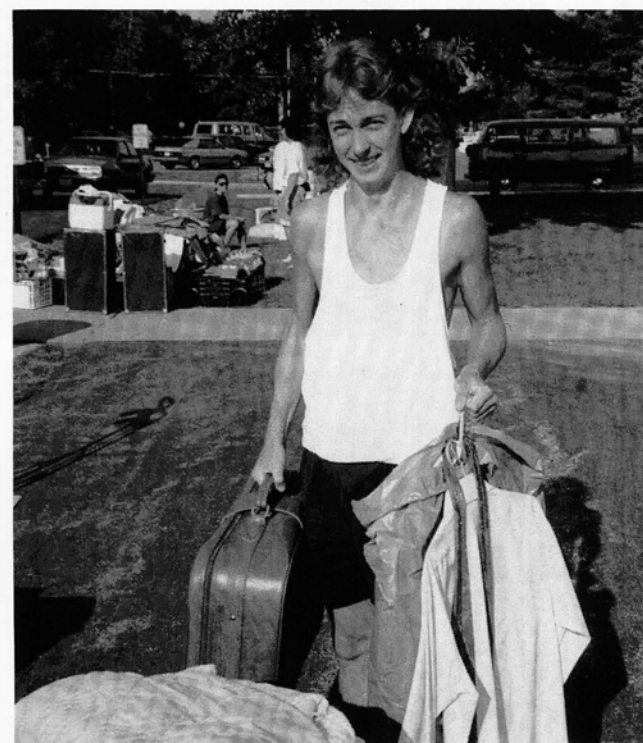

MOVE-IN DAY

The completion of this season ended Gail Daugherty's twentieth season as head basketball coach here at ONU. His overall coaching record consisted of 310 wins and 218 losses. He leaves his position as head coach to take on the responsibility of Director of Athletics. His teams have led the division three nationally three times, and have ranked in the top ten fourteen times. He received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Idaho State University, and has previously coached at West Point Military Academy. When looking back at his ONU coaching year, he will always remember the season of 1979-80 where the team was ranked second in the nation, and the game on December 23, 1980 between ONU and the University of Oklahoma (Div. 1 Big 8) with his team coming out on top 72-69. Everyone will miss his exceptional coaching ability, but as the new Director of Athletics, he will still be seen around the court.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The women's basketball team played 4 top 20 ranked teams this season, and won one of them, Coach Lauth lead the team to a 12-14 team record and a tie for 6th place in the OAC conference. Coach Gayle Lauth made a difficult decision to leave her position as ONU's head basketball coach in order to take on the responsibilities of Ass. Athletic Director and Department Chairman. She has been the head coach for 20 years, and 5 years as assistant. Her overall coaching record consists of 274 wins and 150 losses. The 1988 Coach-of-the-Year is a graduate of Ohio University and earned her M.S. from Indiana University. Her fondest memory of her years as basketball coach is of the people, and the growth and development of the program. She is proud of what she calls the 'ripple effect.' She likes to see some of her players go on to be coaches, and is proud of all Northern's women basketball players and their achievements. Her excellent coaching will be missed, but she will once again prove her talents with her new position.

Naming the Comet.

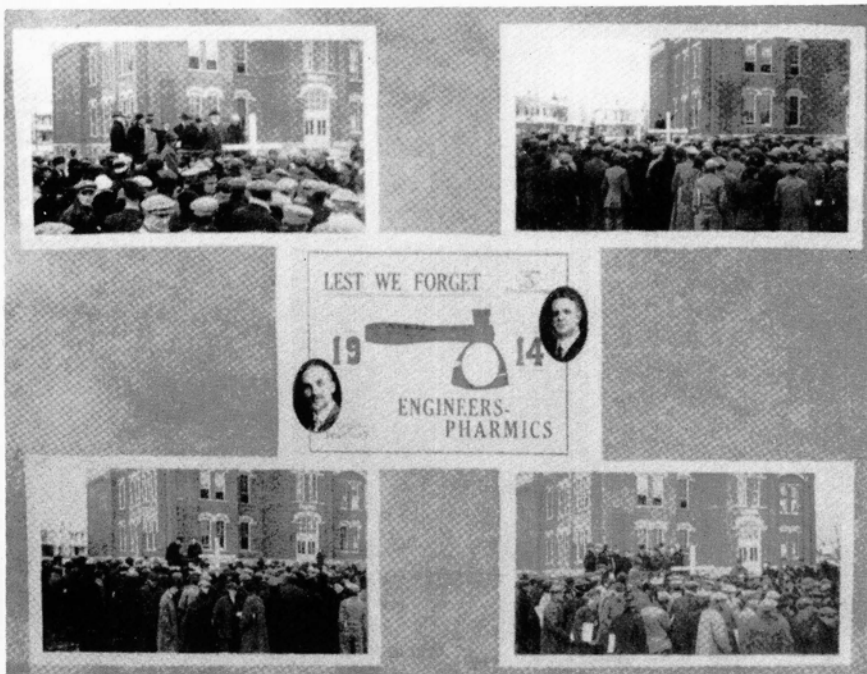

ONE of the many things of which The Comet is justly proud is its name, and the honor of christening it belongs to our esteemed classmate, Miss Irene Compton, B. E., and this is how it all came about.

When, at a senior meeting, there arose the question of naming the class bulletin, Miss Compton suggested as a name, "The Comet." A round of applause greeted the suggestion, and it was evident the name had made a hit. The president called for other names, but Mr. Dow moved that as this name was so well received, suggestions be closed and this one allowed to stand.

Mr. Sheets, one of our more conservative members then remarked: "Fellow classmates, the name 'Comet' seems to take well, it sounds good, but let us not jump at a conclusion simply because this name tickles our ears. Remember friends, a comet is an elusive, fleeting thing; now you see it, now you don't. This bulletin is permanent, it has come to stay; let us find a name more fitting."

No sooner was the gentleman seated than his speech was nipped in the bud by Mr. Townsend who said: "Fellow Seniors, a comet is indeed a fleeting thing; so is time and so is life, but there is nothing in the universe to which all eyes are turned as they are to the Comet that now adorns the heavens. So may it ever be with this class and this bulletin." This remark was followed by one of Mr. Dow's flashes of wit; said he: "Remember also, classmates, that a comet 'goes some,' and so does this class."

When the applause at this remark had subsided, President Davidson crowned the discussion and cinched the name with these words: "A Comet may be fleeting and elusive; we may not see it, may not know where it is, but it is always somewhere, it returns ever and anon, and never loses its radiance and its glory." The name was then accepted by the class without a dissenting vote. Long live "The Comet."

EACH ORGANIZATION HAS ITS OWN TALE OF HOW IT BECAME A PART OF ONU BUT NONE OF THEM IS AS NATURAL AS THE LEGEND OF THE YEARBOOK. BEFORE THE LEGEND CAME ABOUT ONU DID NOT HAVE A YEARBOOK. THEN ONE BRIGHT SUNNY DAY WHEN A GREAT BREEZE BLEW THROUGH THE CAMPUS AND RIPPED ALL OF THE PICTURES OUT OF EVERYONE'S ROOM AND PLACED THEM IN A PILE OUTSIDE OF DUKE 400. THE PRESIDENT COULD NOT FIND ALL OF THE OWNERS SO HE PUT THEM ALL IN A BOOK FOR EVERYONE TO LOOK AT. THEY ALL LIKED THE IDEA SO MUCH THAT THEY ALL WANTED THEIR OWN LITTLE BOOK OF PICTURES AND MEMORIES TO LOOK AT. EVEN NOW MEMBERS OF THE YEARBOOK BELIEVE THAT THE WIND HELPS TO GATHER THE PICTURES USED AND THAT IS WHY IT IS SO WINDY IN ADA.

My Northern

In years to come, and now, dear book,
I hope to come to you and look
Into the past, back into my life,
And grateful be for memories rife;
College days, the last days of youth,
Faces of friends, your lasting truth
So faithfully keeps for the lonely hour,
When reminiscence is in flower,
And blue demons strive to blight it;
The lonely hour, with your thoughts to right it,
Is sure to be cheerful—filled with smiles and sighs,
Smiles of reflection from memory's skies,
Sighs, the breath from a heart that is yearning
For one more day to old Northern returning,
And yet is glad, for my one best friend
Is near me still, and will be, till the end.

AT THE END OF EACH YEAR WHEN
ALL OF THE GRADUATES ARE LEAVING, LEGEND HAS IT THAT A
LONG LOST ALUM TRAVELS AROUND

AS THIS GHOST ENGRAVES THESE

SUCCESSFUL.

A LEGENDARY YEAR

VICTORIES TO REMEMBER

After all the twists, turns and tension, the closest of World Series ended in the closest of games. The Minnesota Twins and Jack Morris squeezed past the Atlanta Braves 1-0 on pinch-hitter Gene Larkin's single in the bottom of the 10th inning on Oct. 27, 1991, to win Game 7 and end the series.

Don Mattingly received national attention in August, 1991, for more than his baseball expertise. A flat refusal to get a haircut resulted in his being benched.

Mark Rypien was named MVP of the Redskins 37-24 Super Bowl victory over Buffalo on Jan. 26, 1992. This was their third Super Bowl win in a decade.

Magic Johnson, whose beaming smile and sparkling play entertained basketball fans for more than a decade, announced on Nov. 7, 1991, that he had tested positive for the AIDS virus and was retiring.

PRESIDENTS OPEN REAGAN LIBRARY

President Bush with Reagan, Carter, Ford, and Nixon

Ronald Reagan threw open the doors of his presidential library on Nov. 5, 1991, and invited the public to judge his turn in the White House. A military band played "Hail to the Chief" and the crowd of 4200 invited guests cheered as President Bush and former Presidents Carter, Nixon and Ford joined Reagan in the first gathering ever of five past or current presidents. The Spanish-style structure is nestled on 100 acres about 50 miles from Los Angeles. At 153,000 square feet, it is the largest presidential library and includes 55 million documents from Reagan's presidency, available for public inspection.

COUP IN THE SOVIET UNION

Soviet President Mikhail S. Gorbachev and his family were placed under house arrest in the Crimea on August 19, 1991, as an eight-man emergency committee led by Vice President Gennady Yanayev took power in a coup attempt in the Soviet Union.

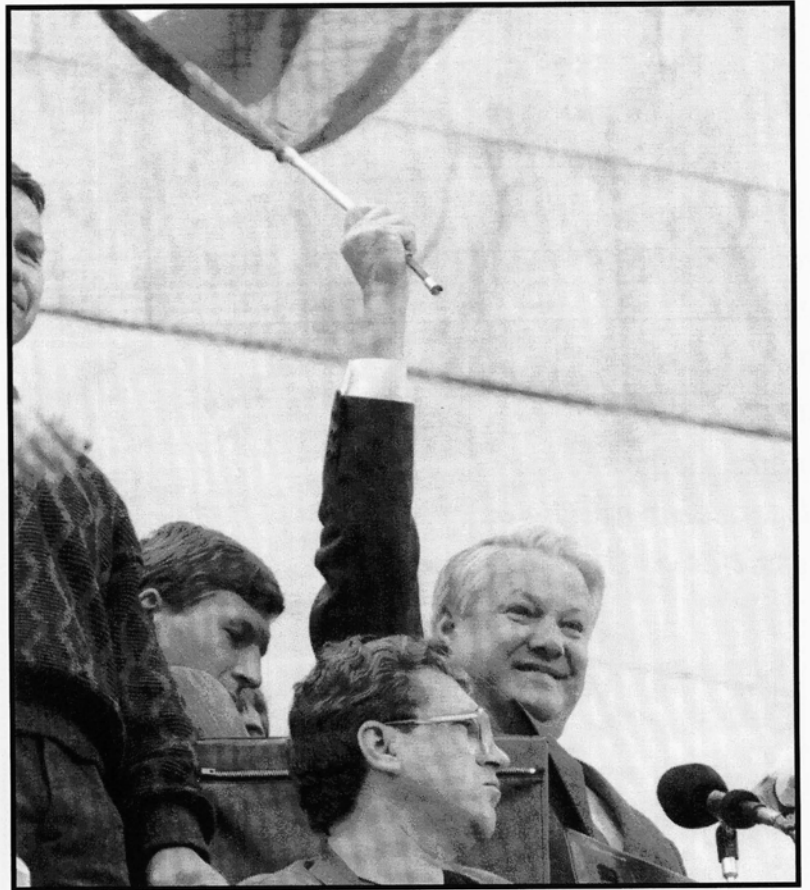

Crowds of perplexed people wandered among the many Soviet tanks parked behind the Red Square during the military coup hours. (In the background is St. Basil's Cathedral)

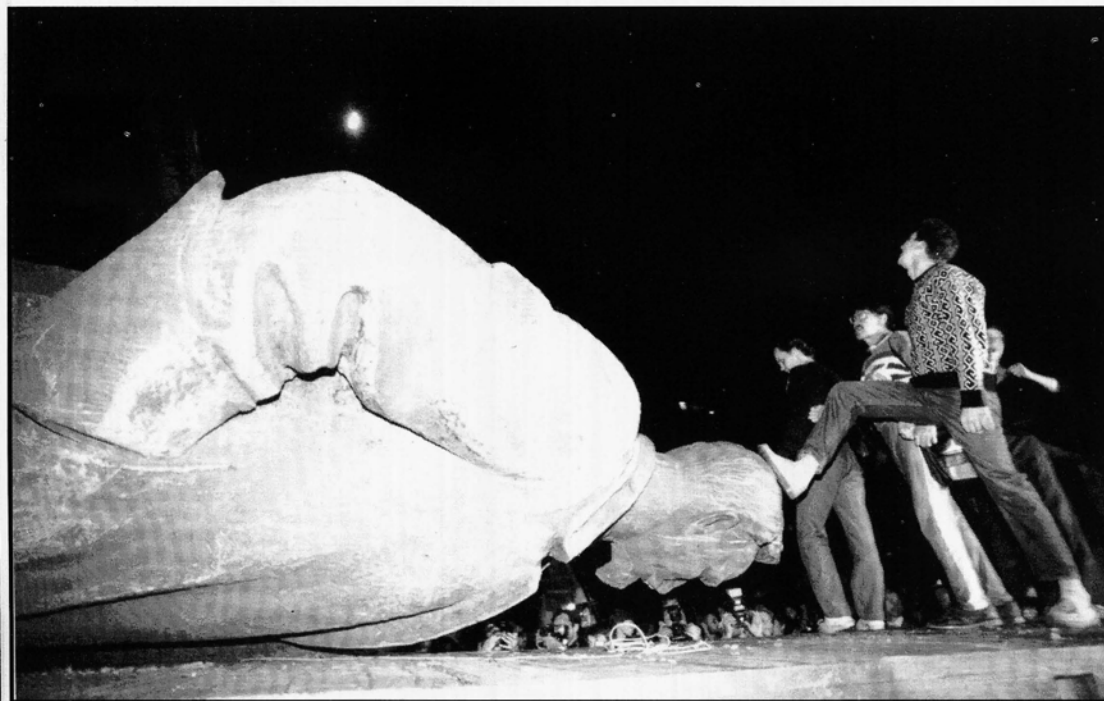

Convoys of Soviet tanks moved into Moscow less than two miles from Kremlin. (Left) As a former Gorbachev adviser spoke to the crowds, denouncing the coup and demanding that Gorbachev be allowed to address the Soviet people) hands were raised in applause (right).

Before dawn on thursday, August 22, an Aeroflat jet arrived at Vnukovo airport, Moscow, bringing home Gorbachev and his entourage.

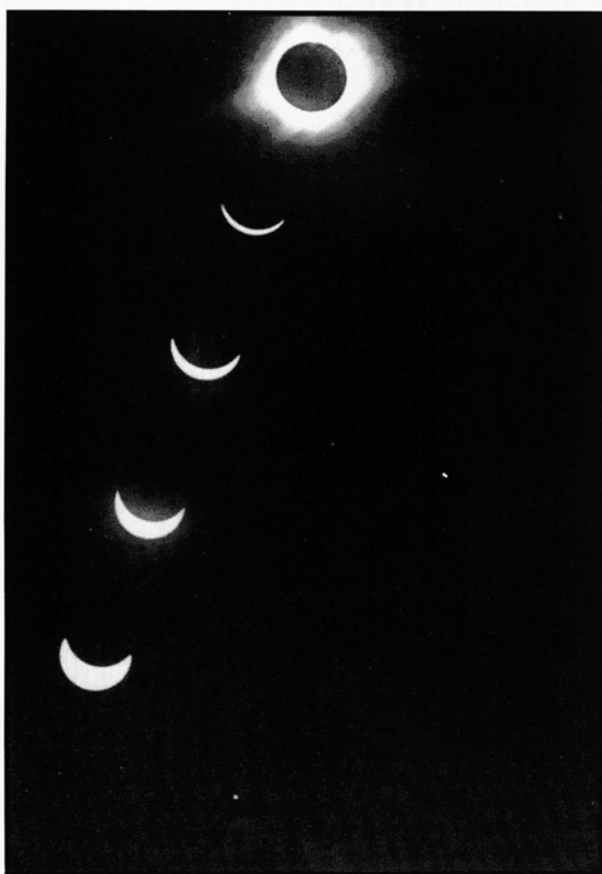

Russian President Boris Yeltsin waved the white-blue-and red Russian tricolor flag from the Russian Federation building before a crowd of about 100,000 supporters .

The coup had failed, and before the day was through, all coup leaders were arrested except for Interior Minister Boris Yugo, who reportedly killed himself. The statue of the founder of the KGB was toppled while thousands of Muscovites watched.

Freedom has come to the Soviet Union.
